MEN WHO KILLED PRISON OFFICIALS MEET DEATH

Nebraska Posse Hem Fugitives in Barn—Morley Fought on Hour—Shot to Pieces

LINCOLN, Neb., March 18.—The fugitive convicts, Gray, Morley and Dowd, met death today in a gun battle with the posse who avenged the deaths of Prison Warden Delanuty, Deputy Warden Charles Wagner, and Usher Heilman, who were shot Thursday in the convicts' mutiny at the Nebraska penitentiary.

The trio fled following the crime, and a posse has since been pursuing them.

The convicts were hemmed in in a barn, and after exchanging shots for an hour Gray fell mortally wounded. Dowd, convinced that there was no chance of escape, committed suicide.

Morley maintained a lone fight for an hour. When his rifle had been silent for ten minutes, the posse found him dead, literally shot to pieces. It is reported that Sheriff McShane of Omaha was killed in the fight, but the account gives meager details and the report has not been confirmed.

CONVICTS WERE CHASED IN AUTOS BY TWENTY POLICE
OMAHA, March 18.—Twenty policemen in automobiles at noon were only twenty minutes behind the fugitive convicts, Gray, Morley and Dowd, who were galloping in a wagon toward Allbright. The convicts were heavily armed, and a battle was expected when they should be overtaken. The sequel proved that the chase was a fatal one to the fleeing convicts.

GEO. W. MELVILLE AT END OF BRAVE LIFE

Hero of Arctic Explorations and Civil War Passes Away
in Quaker City

PHILADELPHIA, March 18.—Rear Admiral George W. Melville, retired, famous as a hero of the civil war, Arctic explorer, scientist and student of naval affairs, died yesterday morning at his residence, 620 North Eighteenth street. Funeral services will be held Wednesday.

Rear Admiral George Wallace Melville's name always has been associated with the De Long expedition which came to grief in an effort to find the northeast passage to the supposed polar sea in 1881. It was he, then an engineer in the navy, who headed a division of the shipwrecked explorers after the ship, the Jeanette, had been crushed by the ice, and finally brought them to safety on the Lena delta, in Siberia. Although he made three Arctic voyages, one of them a search for Greeley's expedition. For his bravery he received a gold medal from congress and was advanced fifteen numbers.

TARDY RECOGNITION

French Composer's Work Produced in Triumph After Forty Long
Years of Waiting

PARIS, March 18.—Panelli, a comparatively unknown composer, received his reward yesterday when after forty years of non-recognition, the first part of his "Tableaux Symphoniques" was given by the Colonne orchestra at the Chatelet theater and achieved a great success. There was an immense audience present, and the applause lasted for ten minutes until the composer appeared on the stage and bowed his acknowledgments. The orchestra's applause led the tribute to the work.

FOURTEEN KNOWN DEAD IN EXPLOSION

S. P. Locomotive Blows up at San Antonio, Tex.—Bodies of Dead Blown 100 Feet

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 18.—Fourteen are known to be dead as a result of the explosion of a locomotive in the Southern Pacific yards this morning. Parts of the bodies were scattered for one hundred feet.

The Southern Pacific officials admit that fourteen are dead, but other estimates say that the death list will run from twenty-five to thirty.

The machine shops in the co-operative portion of the round house were wrecked and several engines demolished. Debris was scattered hundreds of feet. The majority of those killed were mangled beyond identification and fragments of bodies were scattered for blocks. Many were fearfully injured. The majority were strikebreakers. Dynamite is rumored to have been the cause of the explosion. The explosion shattered windows throughout the city. The round house catching fire, added to the horror of the catastrophe.

VIOLA CARVER WAS ARRAIGNED TODAY— HEARING MARCH 27

LOS ANGELES, March 18.—Viola Carver, aged 23, who killed J. Edwin Edge, because of unrequited love, was arraigned this morning. Her father and mother accompanied her to court. The preliminary hearing was set for March 27 in the police judge's chambers. The girl was calm.

MICHAEL CUNIFF HEADS SENATE AS PRESIDENT

Samuel Bradner, Speaker of House; Recall of Judges Coming; Gov. Hunt's Address

PHOENIX, March 18.—The first State Legislature of Arizona convened at noon today, with the city in festive mood. Michael G. Cuniff was unanimously elected president of the Senate. Samuel Bradner, a railroad switchman, was elected speaker of the House. Both are progressive Democrats.

Cuniff intimated that the judiciary recall plan of the constitution rejected by President Taft would be immediately reincorporated, thus demonstrating Arizona's absolute independence of thought.

Governor Hunt's message occupied an hour and a half in delivery. He advocated woman suffrage, better labor laws, child labor laws, employees' liability laws and prison reform. The address was progressive throughout.

Phoenix is celebrating the convocation of her first State Legislature, realizing that it is the real earnest of her statehood.

In his message Gov. Hunt sprang a surprise by advocating that every newspaper in Arizona be compelled to print a complete list of the owners and stockholders.

Cummins Introduces Measure in Senate Outlining Plan for Such a Law

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Cummins today introduced a senate bill proposing a comprehensive plan for the primary nomination of candidates for president and vice-president, matters pertaining to the electoral college.

Provisions of the Cummins bill are that a primary election be held in every state on the second Monday in July beginning with the present year; that a national board control the form of ballots used, and make regulations preventing fraud; that on the second Wednesday following the election, the state board shall canvass the vote at each polling place; that on the first Monday in August, the national board shall meet and canvass votes from states and certify the names of the candidates for president and vice-president of each party, the names of the candidates having the highest votes to be printed on ballots for the general election.

LONG BEACH WINS IN BOTH DEBATES

LONG BEACH, March 18.—Long Beach debaters Friday night defeated Huntington Beach debaters on both sides in the simultaneous debate on the subject of old-age pensions. In Long Beach Henry Bufum and Elmer Tucker, taking the affirmative, won from Paul Leckrick and Ray Overacher by a score of 207 to 183½ and at Huntington Beach Albert Morosco and Hugh Shipley, taking the negative, won from Leonard Livernash and Charles Decker by a score of 214 to 197. By this victory Long Beach increases its lead over other schools in the league and will probably win the championship.

Surveyors of Two Counties are Determining Point in the Seviers Canyon

MAKES DIFFERENCE IN TWO COST BILLS

Important Step Taken in Continuing One of Oldest Roads in Orange County

This week the first important step looking to the construction of the road up Seviers Canyon from San Juan Hot Springs to connect with a road from Kishino will be taken, in that County Surveyor McBride of Orange county and County Surveyor Pierson of Riverside county will determine the exact point where the line between the two counties crosses Seviers Canyon.

It makes considerable difference to each county whether that line lies three or four or some other number of miles from San Juan Hot Springs. Each county will build the road to the county line. The road lies along the rough bottom of a canyon never yet traveled by team, where road building will be expensive, and the difference of a mile may mean the difference of several hundreds or thousands of dollars to either county.

Several weeks ago County Surveyor McBride, Supervisor Leck and Forest Ranger Stephenson made a trip up the canyon, and met a party of Riverside and Elsinore men coming in from the East. At that time it was discovered that there was a difference of opinion as to where the county line crossed the canyon. It was decided that the line must be located in order that each county might make its estimates as to cost and proceed with the building of the much-needed road.

Last week County Surveyor Pierson ascended the range from the Elsinore side and placed a big flag on the peak. This is what the surveyors designate as the north corner, and is a well established surveyor's point. The surveyors will now start from the south corner, another point down the range, and run their line from that point toward the flag on the north corner. In that way the canyon will be crossed, and the important matter determined to the satisfaction of both counties.

The two county surveyors will stay at the San Juan Hot Springs during the three or four days that it will take to run the line. County Surveyor McBride took two assistants with him from Santa Ana this morning. Forest Ranger Stephenson of El Toro will probably be with the party. The Riverside county official is at San Juan Hot Springs.

The building of this road is of great interest to the south end of Orange county and the Elsinore section of Riverside county. It will shorten the distance to be traveled between Elsinore and the Orange county beaches. At present there is no road from the Elsinore valley to the coast, and residents of that section have to go far to the north and come down the Santa Ana canyon or go far to the south by Fallbrook. The road will be of great convenience to a large portion of Orange county, probably a larger portion than of Riverside county.

Riverside county has been anxious to do its share in this road for years, but Orange county has held back on account of the cost of the road, which, running through rough country, cannot be built with a plow and a road grader.

Orange county has a county road running up the San Juan canyon to the San Juan Hot Springs, which is destined to be of more importance as a resort than ever before. It is now under the management of the San Juan Hot Springs Co., of which Supervisor Jasper Leck of Tustin is manager. The place has been fitted up with new buildings, and camping facilities were never better.

The road from San Juan Capistrano to the hot springs, a distance of twelve miles, is one of the oldest roads in the county. Spanish records show that the padres traveled often to these springs to get the benefit of its water and curative bays. From the springs a road runs a half-mile up Seviers canyon to a half-mile up Seviers canyon, the last habitation up the canyon. There the road ends, and from that point it will be built. The canyon is picturesque, and once the road is completed the trip through the mountains is bound to become a favorite one for automobile tourists.

TAFT DOWN ON PLAN OF POPULAR PRIMARY

Declares It Open Fraud Without Penal Provision—Deplores Agitation
Against Judiciary

BOSTON, March 18.—The pet policies of the "people's power" movement was roasted brown by President Taft in addresses delivered by him to both houses of the legislature today. He denounced the "soap box" presidential primary as an "open avenue for fraud and violence."

In discussing the judiciary recall he slapped at Roosevelt, asserting the recall of judicial decisions would never do, and added it was impossible for all of the people to participate in governmental functions. The President declared the constitution is the "foundation of a government of the people, and for the people by a representative part of the people."

He deplored the agitation against the judiciary, asserting that conditions do not exist where so radical an instrument as the recall of judges is needed, claiming such enactment would remove the keystone of the governmental arch.

President Taft said in his address: "Agitation against the courts and the constitution is a serious menace to enduring government. One easily discovers the tendency of modern politics to exalt above written law and the written constitution, what is called the popular will, as if it is a higher law to which we owe allegiance. This is an insidious proposition that the constitution is to be defeated and an impossible construction be put upon it in deference to the popular will. I deny there is in the decisions of the court or the character of judges anything justifying such a radical innovation."

Referring to the presidential primary, Taft said: "I do not hesitate to say that in my judgment a voluntary primary is outside the law and worse than none. It gives an opportunity to ineligible electors of another party to cast unfair votes. Without the safeguard of penal provision in the respect of casting and counting ballots, it is an open fraud."

Numerous Feasts
BOSTON, March 18.—President Taft starts today on a "follow up" trip through New England. He is scheduled to participate in seven real meals. At noon he had negotiated three. He arrived from Washington at 7 o'clock. He breakfasted at the Boston City Club, where he met a score of politicians. He breakfasted again at the Somerset Hotel with Mayor Fitzgerald and other officials at 9:30. He then attended a "get-together meeting" in the hotel dining room where more "eats" were programmed. He then attended a formal luncheon in his honor by the Pilgrim Club Association.

The President then rushed to the State House and delivered an address, then, after reviewing a St. Patrick's parade, attended a reception by the Massachusetts Taft League.

Four dinners an hour apart are scheduled for this evening. Taft starts for New Hampshire tomorrow.

LONG STRIKE REACHES END

Thirty Thousand Textile Workers Go Back—Some Friction—Strikes Threaten

LAWRENCE, Mass., March 18.—Thirty thousand textile workers returned today to the mills here, after one of the greatest industrial wars in American history. Operations were resumed without disorder, except at the American Woolen Co.'s mills, where five hundred strikers asserted that the company was discriminating, and quit again. The differences are trifling, and it is believed the trouble will soon be adjusted.

Plants Guarded
BARRE, Mass., March 18.—There was no excitement created by the striking employees of the Barre Wool Combining Company and the Worsted Company here yesterday. A heavy guard of policemen from Worcester, members of the state police force and deputy sheriffs, was maintained about the two plants all Saturday night and yesterday.

Fall River Hopeful
FALL RIVER, Mass., March 18.—Residents of this city are awaiting with hopeful feelings the continuance of negotiations this week between the textile council, representing 30,000 cotton mill operatives, and the cotton manufacturers' association on the wage scale.

CALIFORNIA ASPARAGUS $1 PER BUNCH IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, March 18.—Green asparagus has made its appearance in New York in the last two or three days. It comes from California, and if you get it raw it costs in the neighborhood of $1 a bunch. Another sign that spring is headed this way is that the vernal variety of leading chefs, is just coming into season.

CAMP OF SONS OF VETERANS ORGANIZED HERE SATURDAY

A camp of Sons of Veterans was organized at Santa Ana Saturday evening, to be known as Santa Ana Camp, No. 10. There were twenty-three charter members. The charter will be held open until April 1 that additional members may become charter members.

E. S. Scott, district organizer for California and Oregon, instituted the camp and installed the officers, who are:

Commander, J. C. Burke; senior vice commander, F. T. Smith; junior vice commander, E. A. Bell; secetary, J. C. Metzger; treasurer, J. H. Metzger; patriotic instructor, H. J. Porgy; guide, W. R. Newman; chaplain, A. E. Koopsel; inside guard, M. R. Newman; outside guard, A. Brewster; council, G. S. Smith, P. E. Newman and E. B. Johnson.

Another meeting of the camp will be held next Friday night at the Armory. All sons and grandsons of men who fought with the Union Army are eligible to membership in the organization. The organization will act as an auxiliary with the local G. A. R. post at the national encampment to be held in Los Angeles in September.

PACKERS ARE SHOWN UP TODAY

Twenty Years of History of Millionaire Trust is Outlined by Sheean

SPECIAL ATTORNEY SAYS EVERY CHARGE PROVEN

Famous and Long Drawn-out
Case is Likely to Go to the Jury This Week

CHICAGO, Mar. 18.—James Sheean, special government attorney, today began the closing arguments in the trial of ten millionaire beef packers, and the case is expected to go to the jury before the end of the week.

Outlining the government's case, Sheean declared that every charge in the indictments had been proved. He outlined every phase of the case, including the alleged price of operation. Defense arguments will probably begin late tomorrow, after which District Attorney Wilkerson will sum up for the government.

Attorney Sheean today reviewed the last twenty years of the packing industry and showed the efforts of A. H. Veeder and Henry Veeder to form a billion-dollar beef syndicate. He described the operations of the packers in the "old pool" days. He said the syndicate operations progressed through a series of unnamed conferences where price agreements were made, territory divided and profits fixed. He declared that these meetings later took the name of a directors' meeting of the National Packing Company organized by the heads of the allied interests. He described the National Packing Company as a great clearing house through which the members dealt with one another, ratified agreements, assessed members for violation of price agreements, etc.

His early argument was confined to an outline of the physical structure of alleged trust and its methods. Later instructions to and reports from the branch house managers through the National Packing Company will be shown. Thousands of documents will be introduced bearing on this feature.

LONG BEACH POLICE OFFICER KILLED

Thos. C. Borden Shot by Burglar Robbing Borden House—
Suspects Arrested

LONG BEACH, March 18.—Four suspects have been arrested for the murder of Mounted Patrolman Thomas C. Borden, the oldest member of the Long Beach police department, who was killed by a supposed burglar in his own home last night.

Two of the suspects were taken before Mrs. Borden in an attempt at identification. The deputies are still searching for suspects.

The Borden had just returned from church last night when they discovered a man leaving the house, where he had packed up a lot of silverware. He shot Patrolman Borden before the latter could draw his revolver. Borden was shot through the brain.

Searching parties were out all night, one of the parties being headed by Borden's own son, Charles.

GIRL KILLED IN STREET CAR ACCIDENT SUNDAY

LOS ANGELES, March 18.—A Georgia street car yesterday afternoon struck an automobile at the intersection of Santa Barbara and Vermont avenues, hurling it over twice and throwing all but one of the occupants to the street beyond the wreckage. The one exception was Miss L. E. Wickman of Garvanza, who was thrown under the street car which passed over both of her legs. She died before she could be taken to the hospital. The others in the car were Charles W. Evans of Alhambra, owner of the automobile, cut and bruised; Pauline Wickman, sister of the young woman killed, sprains and cuts; Glenn Wickman, brother, arm sprained and body bruised.

The motorcar was badly damaged. The street car officials claim that Evans, who was driving, was on the wrong side of the street and was out of sight behind a passing car until the moment of the accident.

IMPROVEMENTS ARE PROJECTED

Newport Beach Has Four Big Enterprises Planned for Near Future

Newport News: Among the projected improvements for Newport Beach are the $100,000 hotel for Balboa island, the Brannigan glass factory, the New Thought college and the Moose home at West Newport.

The plans for the hotel were published in the Sunday Times a week ago and were drawn by the same architects who designed Mr. Collins' big concrete house. The matter is being held up for the present pending the result of the election in April, for if the town goes wet Mr. Collins will petition to have the island annexed to the city and build the hotel it being out of the question to get a hotel license from the county.

The opposite result would probably be as acceptable to the New Thought cult who have purchased from Stephen Townsend his 40-acre ranch on Newport Heights ostensibly for the purpose of erecting a college for the dissemination of their doctrine.

The Brannigan glass factory seems to be assured as the promoters have the money and are not trying to make a stock selling proposition of it.

As for the Moose home at West Newport, the moose is known to be a water loving animal and with the beautiful canals and lake in West Newport the antlered tribe could find no more suitable location.

F. W. Beckwith was married in Los Angeles Thursday afternoon to Miss Alma Thorien of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Beckwith are at present spending about two weeks on a honeymoon trip in San Diego and Coronado. An informal reception is being planned for them by their friends when they return.

Trustees Meet
The application of Joe Ferguson to build an open pavilion on the end of his wharf in the bay at Balboa was granted at an adjourned meeting of the trustees held Monday night. Only three trustees, Barton, Stauss and Smith were present.

In the absence of any bids for putting down a new well for the waterworks, Water Superintendent McMillan was instructed to proceed to have the work done by private contract.

Fire Chief Simberg made an appeal to the board for an addition to the fire house for the purpose of holding fire meetings and providing a place for keeping the paraphernalia of the company. The fire and water committee was instructed to proceed to have the building put up if it could be done for less than $100.

W. A. Cornelius asked the board to establish at least one light on Newport avenue as it was the only inhabited part of the city not lighted, and was the only automobile entrance to the city. The street superintendent was instructed to have a gas light erected near the gas plant.

A motion carried that Mrs. Josephine Kelly be allowed $1.00 per month rent on her lot, the city having been using it to drive over.

CASCARETS INSURE INSIDE CLEANLINESS

The Millions of Cascaret Users Never Have Headache, Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Stomach

It is more necessary that you keep your Bowels, Liver and Stomach clean, pure and fresh than it is to keep the sewers and drainage of a large city free from obstruction.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

No odds how badly and upset you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

PARCELS POST DAY— TO AID MOVEMENT

Farmers Urged to Write Letters to Representatives in Favor of Parcels Post

Today is "parcels post day." Prof. W. A. Henry, professor of agriculture in the University of Wisconsin, suggested a "Farmer's Parcels Post Letter Day." He says:

"Do not expect your congressmen to vote for a parcels post when they are all the time hearing from the opposition and not a word from you. Petitions are the lazy man's way of discharging the duties of citizenship. Write three letters and get your neighbors to write. Be sure to oppose one cent letter postage."

"Ask for a general parcels post and not one limited to rural routes. Only by co-operation and timely effort can the friends of parcels post win their cause."

"In the matter of postal conveniences America is far behind all European countries, and even Japan and other Asiatic countries are leading us."

Address letters to Sylvester C. Smith, House of Representatives; John D. Works, U. S. Senate; Geo. C. Perkins, U. S. Senate, all to Washington, D. C.

101 RANCH SHOWMAN PLUNGES TO DEATH ON SCENIC ROAD

Before scores of pleasure-seekers, J. C. Taylor, connected with the "101 Ranch" show, plunged to his death yesterday from a car on the scenic railway, "A Trip Through the Clouds" at Venice, says the Los Angeles Examiner of this morning. It was said that Taylor was standing up in a car when a sharp curve was struck, throwing him more than fifty feet to the ground.

Taylor struck on his head, fracturing his spine. He was dead when the guards reached him.

The 101 ranch show with which Taylor was connected, will show here this week.

GARDEN GROVE ON THE GROW

Subdivisions Announced and New Houses Being Built in the Thriving City

GARDEN GROVE, March 18.—The 18-acre piece of C. W. McKee, which was lately sold, has been laid out into lots and is now on the market. It lies west of the P. E. track and just south of the depot.

Dr. Frances Marshall of Los Angeles, who formerly resided here, has purchased a building lot on East Ocean avenue from P. M. German, and will return here to live as soon as her new house is completed. It is understood that work will be started at once on the building.

Work on the new Methodist parsonage has been finished and the building will be turned over to the trustees this week by Contractor Fulson.

A number of new houses under construction are being rushed along, and will soon be occupied by the owners.

The recent rains have put all the farmers to work. Plow teams can be seen in all directions and things look prosperous.

The W.C.T.U. will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emma Davis. The annual election of officers will take place. All members are requested to be present.

Paul Martin on last Friday evening fell out of the manger where he was playing and sprained his arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mills, who have lately moved to Bishop, Inyo county, are here spending a few days with friends and alto to attend to some business.

Mrs. J. T. McElree was a guest at the home of Mrs. Tillotson in Santa Ana yesterday.

Members of the T. A. C. met at the home of Mrs. S. R. Fitz on last Tuesday afternoon.

Gerwa Nino is spending Saturday and Sunday with her parents at Orange.

Elder and Mrs. Paul Hansen of Los Angeles are guests at the home of N. Carmichael, he being the speaker twice on Sunday at the Latter Day Saints church.

Geo. Greder has returned to his home in Denison, Ind. He has been living northeast of town.

A. O. Butler has returned from a business trip to Imperial.

Edwin Swall was jumping in the barn and slipped, falling on the cement floor, and broke his left arm, one bone just above the wrist, but is getting along all right.

Mrs. Geo. Nino and children, of Orange, were guests at the home of Miss Carrie Kimball on Friday.

T. H. Ingram was a business visitor here on Thursday.

EVANGELIST LOWE WINS HIS HEARERS

Will Talk Tonight at Christian Church on Subject "Will
the Old Book Stand?"

Mr. J. M. Lowe, the evangelist at the First Christian church, spoke to large and appreciative audiences both morning and evening. Mr. Lowe is a man of pleasing appearance. He wins his hearers from the start. The support he is receiving from the chorus and orchestra is truly inspiring.

His morning theme was "Three Circles of Love," and in the evening the topic was "The Fool's Decision." The morning sermon was addressed particularly to Christians, in which the speaker said, among other things: "The truest test of the Christian life is found in the home, where the relations are the closest and most intimate. If you want to know whether you are a Christian, ask your wife; she knows. Ask your husband; he knows. A man is his real self at home. A Christian is no man's enemy. If you hate anybody, go home and ask God to save your soul, for the soul that hates is lost."

The evening topic was more general and proved interesting to every one present. Mr. Lowe said in part: "I will call three witnesses to testify to the existence of God. The first one is Life. Life is uncreated; eternal in its nature. It came from God, the source of life. Man could not create himself. If the Bible is not true, did the first man make himself, or he did not. If he made himself, he was there before he got there. The second witness is law, by which I mean arrangement, order, system. This universe is not chaos; it moves according to law and law suggests intelligence. The universe is not controlled by law, but by intelligence according to law. The last witness I will call is Love, which came into the world along the crimson pathway of pain. It suffered its way into the world. This witness we will not dismiss. We want to keep and consult with this witness forevermore, for it is Love that makes the world beautiful and fair."

The subject for this evening is: "Will the Old Book Stand?" The song service will start at 7:15. Attend, and enjoy a splendid service in song and praise.

That's a frank statement of facts, and we want you to substantiate them at our risk. Recall Ordinates are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Recall Ordinates are unsurpassable and ideal for the use of children, old folks and delicate persons. We cannot too highly recommend them to all sufferers from any form of constipation and its attendant evils. That's why we back our faith in them with our promise of money back if they do not give entire satisfaction. Three sizes: 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents and 80 tablets 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain Recall Remedies in Santa Ana only at our store—The Rexall Store, Wheeler and Mather Drug Company, 104 West Fourth street.

DIRIGIBLE WINS OUT IN GERMANY

Air Craft Achieve Practical
Results in Commercial and Passenger Service

Under date of March 14, the Berlin correspondent of the Los Angeles Times says:

The dirigible balloon, after a long era of mishaps and catastrophes, seems finally to have come into its own in Germany, and the recent successful achievements of the Parseval, Siemens-Shuckert and Zeppelin balloons are causing the military authorities to look with far less apprehension on the French superiority in aeroplanes. With aeroplane fatalities coming in at the rate of three or four a week, nine months have passed without a single mishap to a German dirigible and the enterprising airship promoters are beginning again to speak with confidence of the possibilities of commercial aerial navigation.

The Parseval Company, which expects to send a dirigible to the United States this summer, has just delivered its latest military dirigible to the army after a brilliant trip in which it exceeded the contract requirements by a non-stop cruise of sixteen hours half of this spent at an altitude of over a mile averaging over forty miles an hour in spite of unfavorable wind and frequent rain squalls.

The hoodoo which has hung over Count Zeppelin during his long career seems to have disappeared with the destruction of the Deutschland II, on May 16 of last year. The Schwaben, which made its first ascent June 26, looks back with pride on a continuous service of over eight months without an accident—a proud record for a Zeppelin. She now has two sisters in the air—the military Zeppelin IX, the fastest dirigible in the world, capable of a sustained speed of almost fifty miles an hour, and the Victoria Luise, named after the Emperor's daughter, which was "launched" in February and attained a speed of almost forty-five miles an hour on her trial trips. The Victoria Luise is destined for the commercial passenger service, like a sister ship now approaching completion, and if she does as well financially as the Schwaben, which has cruised widely throughout Germany, doing a full capacity business everywhere, the balance sheets of the Zeppelin Company will show for the first time a profit in commercial air transportation.

The Siemens-Shuckert, the largest non-rigid dirigible, has also earned the title of "successful" by a long service of flights. It has made between forty-four and forty-five miles per hour, and may be taken over by the army authorities, though her owners may prefer to operate a commercial business like the Zeppelin and Parseval companies.

Debate at Banquet
Orange News: A topic of universal interest among the younger men of the town is the Political Club banquet to be held at the Rochester Hotel next Wednesday evening, when the club will be addressed on the issues of the city campaign by Mr. S. M. Craddock and Mr. A. Dittmer.

The demand for tickets has already proven that the affair will be well attended and that the young men's vote of the town will be well represented.

Register's Contest Most Successful Ever Held Here

MRS. J. LESLIE SWOPE WINS

Over 15,000,000 Votes Cast for Roll of Honor Candidates in Register's Mammoth Contest.

The Register's great subscription contest, by long odds the biggest thing of its kind ever held in Orange county, came to an end Saturday night at 9 o'clock.

The candidates all worked with fine spirit and remained faithful until the end. Over 15,000,000 votes were cast in all.

Mrs. J. Leslie Swope of Anaheim received first honors and the big "E-M-F 30 Touring Car," and has a total opposite her name tonight of 3,077,680. It was the largest vote ever cast by a candidate in Orange county.

Next comes Miss Lula McKenzie with a credit of 2,745,925 votes; Miss Pauline Jacobs comes third with 2,434,495 votes; and Mrs. J. H. Harvey comes fourth with 1,451,625 votes to her credit. These three candidates have their choice of the $85.00 dining room set offered by Horton-Spurgeon Furniture Co., the $80.00 diamond ring offered by Padgham & Son, or the $80.00 White sewing machine offered by J. R. Dean, the local agent. The above named candidates will have their choice according to their standing.

Miss Lillian Yaeger increased her final total to 1,160,755 votes, and Mrs. N. E. Todd followed next with 898,720 votes; these two candidates are entitled to a scholarship in the Orange County Business College, value, $65.00 each.

The seventh, eighth and ninth prizes consist of three scholarships in the Orange County Conservatory of Music, value $20.00 each; these prizes were won by Mrs. Sam Preble, with a total of 892,350 votes, Mrs. C. C. Ramsey coming next with 741,020 votes, and Mrs. Louise Bernike, 576,120 votes.

Very Few Final Day Subscriptions

Contrary to the usual course in contests very few subscriptions were turned in on the closing day. Sometimes candidates or their friends get excited toward the close of a contest and spend large sums of money in subscribing for the paper for friends and acquaintances. This did not happen in this contest. The total amount of money received on Saturday for both new and old subscriptions was only $263, not over $40 from any one candidate.

A Big Reserve Vote

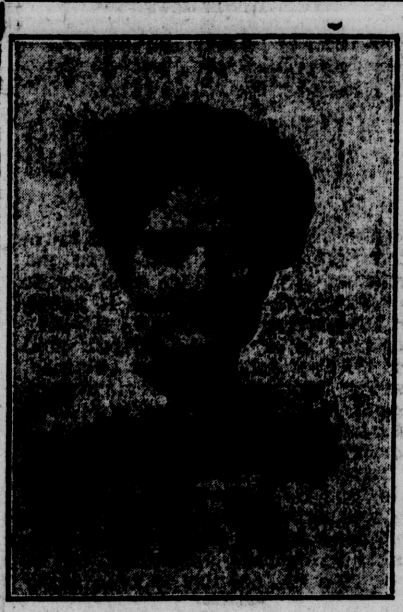

But all of the candidates who were at all near the head of the list had a tremendously large reserve vote—that is, votes which had been issued to them at various times during the contest, as the subscriptions had been turned in, but which had not been polled. The Register would

CERTIFICATE OF JUDGES

We, the undersigned judges of the Register's Voting Contest, do hereby certify that we counted the ballots polled by the candidates and the above vote totals are correct. (Signed.)

MRS. J. LESLIE SWOPE
Winner of the Automobile in the Register's Contest have preferred that all votes had been polled as issued, but it had no right to demand that any candidate should reveal her standing if she preferred not to do so.

Evidence of Good Work

The fact that so little business was turned in on the last day speaks volumes for the conscientious, faithful work of the candidates. Every vote ballot issued represents a bona fide paid-in-advance subscription. The average time paid in advance is about two years. Most of the subscriptions were for one year; some were for six months; a few for three months. Quite a number were for two or three years, and a few were for five years.

A Jam of People

The mass of people that the contest editor predicted would witness the closing of the contest, commenced to gather at 8 o'clock Saturday evening and from that time on until 9 o'clock a steady stream of people worked their way into the Register office.

The candidates with their friends were present, and the great throng became a guessing machine as to who would win. Patiently they waited until the clock reached the hour of 9. The ballot box was promptly removed to the judges' table, where the seal was broken and the box unlocked by Mayor Frank Ey.

Counting of Votes

After the ballot box was opened the ballots were made out for the subscriptions enclosed for the different candidates.

The many envelopes containing the reserve ballots of the candidates that had been polled since Friday morning at 10 o'clock, were then sorted.

Ballot after ballot was counted by H. T. Rutherford on the reliable Burroughs adding machine and were then checked by Judges Z. B. West and W. B. Williams, and were then handed to Mayor Frank Ey for inspection; it was found that the totals agreed with the first count in every instance.

The judges then pronounced the count correct and the throng held themselves spellbound while the names of the winners were announced.

Mayor Frank Ey then read the names of the winners while Judge Z. B. West called out the number of votes each candidate had to her credit.

A cheer went up from the crowd, and Mayor Ey introduced Mrs. Swope to the excited throng.

The car was immediately presented to Mrs. Swope and she and her friends went on their way rejoicing to our sister city—Anaheim.

A Good Natured Battle

While this contest was by millions of votes the most successful ever held in Orange county, it was good natured throughout. The candidates grouped themselves together while the count of votes was going on, chatted good naturedly and joked regarding their chances. They went into the race knowing that but one of them could win the automobile, and were ready to abide by the decision of the ballots. They all worked with a do-or-die spirit, and the management of the Register regrets that all could not have received an automobile. The management of the Register thanks all the candidates sincerely for the wide-awake interest that they have taken in the contest from the start.

The paper also wishes to thank the judges for the strict and careful manner in which they performed their duties. The count was checked and rechecked, and carefully verified and certified to by all four gentlemen as being absolutely correct.

Many New Subscriptions

Without the slightest doubt the circulation of the Register is now larger than that of one paper in a thousand that is published in a town no larger than Santa Ana. Indeed, it was that before this contest, which has added over 600 new names to the list of subscribers. The Register's circulation was over 2600 at the beginning of the contest; it is now over 3200.

The contest has materially benefited the merchant and advertiser. The wide circulation that the Register now enjoys, gives the advertiser more for his money than one merchant in a thousand can get for the same advertising rates.

Thanks Her Supporters

I desire to thank my friends for their efforts in my behalf and the public in general for the generous support given me in the Register's popular voting contest which closed Saturday.

MRS. SAM PREBLE.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank all of my friends and acquaintances for their assistance during the recent automobile contest. I tried hard to win the automobile, but I am satisfied with the prize awarded me, the $80.00 diamond ring.

MISS PAULINE JACOBS.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank my friends who so generously came to my aid during the Register's voting contest. Although I did not win the first prize, the automobile, I am perfectly satisfied with the prize I won—the dining room set.

Sincerely,
MISS LULA MCKENZIE.

Card of Thanks

Editor Register,
Santa Ana, Cal.

Dear Sir: Inasmuch as I was fortunate enough to be returned the winner in your late voting contest, I desire in this manner to publicly thank the management of the paper and contest department for the exceeding fairness and impartiality with which everything connected with the contest has been conducted. I also wish to thank each one of the judges for their part and interest in determining the result of the vote.

And last but certainly not least, I want to express my gratitude to the many loyal friends in Anaheim, Santa Ana and elsewhere, who have so earnestly and willingly helped me throughout the entire contest, for without them I certainly could not have been the lucky one.

Most Sincerely,
MRS. J. LESLIE SWOPE,
Anaheim, Cal., March 18, 1912.

EXHIBITION A BIG SUCCESS

Orange Poultry Show Produced an Excellent Display of Fine Feathers

Orange News: The Orange Poultry Show, passing out of the limelight today, has left a wake of pleasant impressions, not only on the general public, to whom it was a revelation, but to those who were in any way connected with it, either as exhibitors or as handlers.

The excellent success attending the poultry show has been a matter of deep gratification to the officials and backers of the exhibition. The spirit displayed by the business men in placing an almost lavish assortment of special premiums was, of course, a powerful instrument in producing competition. The result, as intended, unveiled the unguessed quality and numbers of high-class poultry which rests in the immediately surrounding districts.

For the Orange exhibitors it may be said that they held their own worthily, carrying off a handsome share of the prizes in the face of the keenest competition that the county could produce. The fact that many of them were mere amateurs, competing at their first show, only proves the claim to quality of the locally grown stock.

The task of staging a poultry show of the calibre that was given here was no easy one, and required unceasing labor, and the exercise of experienced judgment. To the prominent poultry men who pushed the idea the splendid results of their endeavors was full reward for the trouble. The generous treatment accorded the show was another most commendable feature and the rest was provided by the ready responsiveness of poultry owners from all over the country.

Among those principally interested in the show were B. F. Kuechel, F. A. Holbrook, G. E. Hart, W. P. Smith, S. E. McPherson and L. A. Durler, and all were hard workers in its behalf. Mr. Kuechel in particular was largely responsible for the excellent showing. Mr. Kuechel, it might be well to mention, is one of the best known fanciers in this part of the country, while his stock cannot be beaten. First to conceive the idea of an Orange show, it was he who interested other fanciers in the plan, and stood by the wheel until it was an accomplished fact. Much of the work and little of the credit fell to him, but he was there just the same.

EVANS "SMOKED OUT"

(Brawley Twice-a-Week News)
Riverside county seems to have arrogated to itself the strife for Congressional honors. With a lively fight on between Cuttle and Evans, and Estudillo also an aspirant, the political contest among the Republicans in that neighborhood waxes exceedingly warm.

Cuttle, one of the original insurgents, and Evans, who claims to be tarred with the insurgent brush, are each striving to eliminate the other from the race, and thereby secure the united support of his home county. A committee of three progressives from Orange county, who are backing Cuttle, have finally smoked Evans out from his lair in the insurgent camp, where he had not been received with open arms.

Notwithstanding Mr. Evans' excellent record and his advocacy of principles that show him to be in line with the advanced political thought of the day, he has not strengthened his candidacy by setting up his banner among those to whose political councils he has hitherto been a stranger. The action savors too much of catering to the gallery gods.

The Eleventh district needs a candidate unafraid, and Mr. Evans has allowed himself to be drawn by the wily political backers of his rival into an unenviable and embarrassing position through his protestations of allegiance to the progressive wing of the party.

A NATIONAL HIGHWAY

The notion of a transcontinental highway is in no sense fanciful, neither is it original. At the present, however, the demand for such a highway is more insistent than ever before. Throughout the country people are urging better roads; in many places they are already built and in others projected.

Trunk railways were not built as continuous lines all at once. Stretches were constructed and put into operation here and there, and finally connected and perfected into great trunk lines. So it will be in the making of "through" highways. Certain roads now popular for various reasons will be improved and connected with others until there will be an ocean to ocean highway, a national road.

The first step in securing a national highway will be to secure organized effort. Farmers especially should be enlisted in the movement as there is no class that will get more benefit from good roads. Manufacturers of vehicles and automobiles who are now among leaders in the industries of this country would undoubtedly contribute liberally to the promotion of systematic plans for national thoroughfares. Of course there are people who will knock. They can't see "anything to it." But there is something to it whether those people can see it or not. Good roads, national highways, like the early railroads, are going to be built in spite of the prejudice of certain people to the "good roads movement."

AMERICAN EXTRAVAGANCE

By a number of comparisons of the earnings and expenditures of Americans with similar items of the same classes of people in European countries, Henry Smith Williams in the February World Today, shows that Americans are the most extravagant and wasteful people in the world.

According to Mr. Williams, American "wifely waste" is due to a number of causes: The poor are the well-to-do and these in turn emulate the rich; the man with a dollar in his pocket finds some way to immediately dispose of it; men mortgage their homes to buy automobiles, and then mortgage the machines to buy jewels and champagne. To sum up, Americans buy what they do not need as well as what they do need but cannot afford. They pay too much for what they get, then waste what is bought.

Taking all the foregoing into consideration, it is no wonder that an American with an annual income of $800 cannot keep a family consisting of his wife, a child and himself. Nor is it any wonder that in ten leading European countries, to 1000 persons there are 373 savings bank depositors, while in this country there are only 99 savings bank depositors to each thousand persons.

CATCHING UP WITH ROOSEVELT

By JUDSON C. WELLIVER in Mnusey's Magazine

The Water-Power Question
On January 15, 1909, Mr. Roosevelt vetoed the construction of a dam across the James river, in Missouri, to create a water-power. This message gave the public its first view of the "water-power trust," since widely exploited.

The veto was based on the fact that no proper provisions were included to protect the public interests in the power. The House committee protested that the Federal government had no authority to impose such provisions. It was the same old argument, that the Constitution would not permit the Federal power to safeguard the public interest. The President had objected to the bill because it did not provide a time limit upon the privilege, and did not reserve to the government the right to fix a charge for the use of the power.

The policy laid down by Roosevelt in this connection has since been approved by both Congress and the country in various cases. It is now accepted as good law and sound public policy, that the government should impose the very conditions demanded by Roosevelt. Yet when he first demanded those conditions, the Senate Committee on Commerce reported flatly that Congress could not constitutionally impose them.

The gentlemen composing this committee were Senators Frye, of Maine; Elkins, of West Virginia; Nelson, of Minnesota; Gallinger, of New Hampshire; Penrose, of Pennsylvania; DePew, of New York; Perkins, of California; Hopkins, of Illinois; Piles, of Washington; Crane, of Massachusetts; and Smith, of Michigan—Republicans. Martin, of Virginia; Stone, of Missouri; Simmons, of North Carolina; McLaurin, of Mississippi; Clarke, of Arkansas; and Newlands, of Nevada—Democrats. They assured the Senate that the thing that has since become the policy of the country simply could not be done. Another case in which Mr. Roosevelt was right and the timid constitutionalists wrong!

regard 1912 as a very likely Democratic year. The most they seriously hope to save out of the wreck is the control of party organization. To save that, they are willing to sacrifice the party's chance of electing the president this year. They know Roosevelt would be elected if nominated, but they would rather have the country go Democratic than see Roosevelt elected.

"This kind of talk is heard more and more freely indulged, day by day and week by week. The increasing bitterness of the pre-convention campaign has induced a measure of frankness not before displayed. The fight, so far as the reactionary people are concerned, is for control of the party, vastly more than the Administration. Their position is perfectly simple.

"If we nominate Taft, these men argue, 'we lose the administration to the Democrats, but we keep control of the party machinery. If we let Roosevelt be nominated, we lose the administration to the progressives, and the party machinery goes along.

"It is beginning to be questioned whether the President fully realizes the extent to which this disposition amounts to a betrayal of himself. Even the forces that have been lined up for Taft don't feel any enthusiasm, my real fighting loyalty to him. He is a figure-head, no more they are fighting for party control in 1916. One of the commonest observations heard among them is that 'this progressive business has got to be put down, and if the party gets licked in 1912, it will be ready, by 1916, to accept the leadership that promises to bring it back to power, and drop all the progressive ideas and programs.

"So the fight of the Roosevelt people for primary expressions of presidential preference this year has and deeply assumed the huge significance of a contest to save the great movement of popular government."

"The situation is critical, the leadership and the following of the National movement for restoration of the rule of the people are just realizing how grave it is.

"If Taft is nominated, then, no matter whether he is elected or not, the reactionary crowd will have control of the Republican party's machinery for the next four years, and that machinery will be employed in every state, in every possible way, to prevent the extension of popular government measures.

"To secure the support of the most reactionary wing of the party, the President has turned the complete control of his candidacy over to the Cannon-Crane-Lorimer-McKinley element of the party. The purpose of this element has at length become plain.

"To keep control of the party machinery they must nominate Taft. They will keep that control, if they nominate him for four years more, whether they elect him or not. They

DECISION DOES NOT
INTEREST CONNELL

Since the Santa Ana salary ordinance states that the city treasurer shall receive as compensation one-half of one per cent of "all money paid out," the decision of Judge Denmore of Riverside, in a Corona case, does not have any effect upon City Treasurer Connell's income. Corona and some other towns have ordinances that say "all money received and paid out," and the question has arisen as to whether or not the city shall pay a percentage on the money received and a like percentage on the money paid out. A dispatch says:

That the Corona city treasurer has authority to retain one per cent of all moneys received by him and a like amount of all moneys expended by him was the decision of Judge Denmore in the case of the city of Corona versus City Treasurer John L. Merriman. The Corona city ordinance provides that the city treasurer shall receive "one per cent on all moneys received and paid out by him." The city brought suit to recover the one per cent retained on the expended funds, and lost.

In Sierra Madre, where a similar suit was brought against City Treasurer F. C. Lehmer, Judge Murphy held that the city treasurer was entitled to the one per cent only on the total amount passing through his hands.

The opposing decisions leave hundreds of other California cities wondering which is the correct interpretation of the law, as in most of the smaller towns the city treasurer's remuneration is governed by the same law.

AVIATRICE NEAR DEATH

Miss Moisant's Narrow Escape From Brother's Fate—Plane Fell at Shreveport

SHREVEPORT, La., March 18.—Miss Matilda Moisant, sister of the late John B. Moisant, narrowly escaped her brother's fate here yesterday when, in descending, her monoplane struck the ground at too steep an angle, bounded into the air and turned over. Miss Moisant fell a few feet but was unhurt. Guy wires at the top of the machine held the heavy motor from the ground, and but for this, Miss Moisant probably would have been crushed to death.

OMAHA WINS OUT ON COMMISSION FORM
CITY GOVERNMENT

OMAHA, March 18.—The Nebraska supreme court has decided that, from a constitutional standpoint, the commission system adopted by this city, does not transgress the rights of any citizen, and despite attacks on the form, the state will not interfere with the election and installation of the seven commissioners who will be selected next month.

The attack on the constitutionality of the commission form was said to have been made in the interests of a coterie of officeholders who have scant hope of reelection under the new system. In fact, many of these offices will be abolished altogether and the places will be filled by appointment by the commissioners.

The new law provides for a non-partisan commission. So carefully is that point guarded that when the names of the candidates are placed on the ballots or voting machines no party designation will accompany any name.

TAFT MAY ASK FREE
HAND IN MEXICO

WASHINGTON, March 18.—It is reported that President Taft is to ask permission of Congress to send troops into Mexico when he thinks it necessary to protect Americans. Already Americans have been injured and killed without redress being obtained. In many instances the Mexican government is unable to give protection to Americans and other foreigners. Foreign countries are bombarding the State Department as to its policy in Mexico. So altogether it is deemed wise and necessary to not only mobilize troops on the border to not only be able to enforce neutrality, but to march into the country if necessary.

He is now a member of the company "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" in Los Angeles. Mr. Geis is a graduate of the Fresno High School and also of the University of California. He received the Yale scholarship upon his graduation from U. C. and later went to the Eastern college, where he also received his diploma. Stage life attracted him, and for a time he was one of the "boys" in "Fader and the Boys," in which William Crane starred. His present engagement in the delightful rural drama introduces him over the footlights as Mr. Simpson, one of the principal characters of the story, and the program gives his stage name "Sidney Blair."

BANKERS WERE HOSTS

Second Opening of Orange Co. Savings Bank Largely Attended and Enjoyed

Making up for the unceremonious way in which he "threw cold water" on the formal opening of the Orange County Savings Bank on Saturday, March 9, Jupiter Pluvius kindly withheld his rain from the scene of action last Saturday night when the bank management had a second opening. The night was lovely and propitious to the event.

The affair proved most enjoyable. It was entirely informal, the bank officials, who were highly successful as hosts, receiving their guests with a whole-hearted, cheerful greeting that put everybody in the very best sort of mood to enjoy the beautiful quarters.

The bank interior, introduced auspiciously by the elegant exterior, is handsome to an unexpected degree. The softly brilliant tints of the two great domes of art glass that pierce the ceiling and lend it a lofty appearance, were well matched in the tones of the walls and base of beautifully veined Alaskan marble. Every exquisite color in the ornamented ceiling, the beams, panels and columns, capitals, elegantly decorated in oil, was brought out in soft relief by the radiance of the electric lights that illuminated every part of the spacious banking room, the waiting rooms with big comfortable chairs, the directors' imposing quarters with big tile fireplace and all the other convenient portions of the elegant first floor.

Delighted crowds escorted by bank officials, were taken through every part of the bank, and a really brilliant scene was presented throughout the evening. Groups of ladies resorted at various enticing spots, noticeably in the spacious and attractive room devoted to the directors of the bank.

A notable center of interest was the bank safe, its unique construction and appearance being novelties to most of the visitors. As the intricacies of the simple-appearing piece of mechanism were explained as far as practically, the listeners were greatly interested.

The event was really more successful both in point of attendance and in happy informality, than the bank management had expected in view of the very brief notice given the public.

CIVICS CLUB MEETING

New School Laws Interestingly Presented by City School Supt. Cranston

The Civics Club is composed of earnest women who are really interested in studying the questions of the day. That it is a growing club is evidenced by the fact that new members are received at every meeting. It has been careful in the selection of its subjects and fortunate in the speakers who have presented them and Saturday's meeting was unusually interesting. The speaker of the afternoon was Supt. J. A. Cranston of the city schools and his subject, "New School Laws of California."

There are twelve of these new laws which Mr. Cranston fully explained in his address. The first one touched upon was that authorizing a new normal school at Fresno. That this school is much needed was shown by the fact that the other State normal schools are all overcrowded—the Los Angeles Normal, for example, having over 1000 pupils. The second law spoken of relates to vaccination which is no longer compulsory where parents are conscientiously opposed to it.

Attention was called to the repeal of the law requiring the taking of a yearly school census. School appropriations henceforth are to be determined by the average daily attendance of the previous year. The age limit of compulsory education has been raised from 14 to 15 years—all children between the ages of 8 and 15 now being required to attend school.

Another interesting law is that requiring mock elections on election days—thus educating the children in one of the duties of citizenship. Another cuts out two or three holidays. Instead of holidays on Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays there are to be programs suitable to the occasion. At the close of the address many questions were asked by the audience and answered by the speaker who was given a hearty vote of thanks on his interesting and instructive talk.

Stereoscopic Lecture

Dr. A. W. Ryder, missionary secretary of the Baptist work in this state will give a stereoscopic lecture on Japan on Tuesday evening, March 19, at the First Baptist church. The public generally is invited to hear the lecture and enjoy the pictures.

Impersonated Saint Patrick

Pauline McElree was hostess to a jolly St. Patrick's party last Saturday evening to which a number of her girl schoolmates responded in Irish costume, even "Pat" himself being impersonated. In fact it might have been concluded that a bunch of Irish immigrants had arrived when the little company assembled. Especially were the guests loyal to the emblematic colors, these also prevailing in the house decorations.

The table was loaded with such delectables as even "young Americans" would relish. These were served cafeteria style, which informal method was in keeping with the freedom displayed and felt by the lively guests. The place cards were painted shamrocks tied with green ribbon.

The centerpiece was of small daisies, while asparagus fern draped the plates-rail and buffet, while embankment of daisies and ferns added to the decorations in other rooms.

Fred McCullah of Long Beach, assistant postmaster of the beach city, was a guest yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Hall, with whom Mrs. McCullah has been spending the past week.

Mrs. Minna Roper Vleren has returned to San Diego with her few weeks old baby son.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank True returned last evening from a three days' stay at their Alta Vista cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Baumgartner, Mr. and Mrs. Furtney, Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. and Mrs. Sexton motored to Long Beach yesterday, spending a delightful day at that lively resort, which was crowded with visitors. Scores of bathers were in the surf during the day.

Mrs. J. O'Connor, who has been visiting her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Kelly, and brother, D. N. Kelly, left today for her home in Republic, Wash.

G. W. Wilcox and family leave today for their new home in Long Beach.

Marie Martin today began making the trip to and from her school at Seal Gardens. She and her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Martin, are living at the C. S. Crookshank home, where Mrs. Martin will care for the little ones lately left motherless.

Mr. J. P. Davis, of Topeka, Kansas, is visiting his old friends and neighbors, J. W. Babbitt and family, of this city.

Mrs. G. L. Godberry attended her friend, Mrs. Jack, as far as Los Angeles today. Mrs. Jack will return in a few days to her home in Chicago.

Mrs. Michael Thompson, her mother, Mrs. Alice Harris, and baby, Marion, returned today to the former's home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Thompson was much improved in health by her two months' stay in Santa Ana.

The Girl That Disappears—Miss Pauline Boylan tells of the White Slave Traffic of America at the Dixie Theatre tonight, continuing Tuesday and Wednesday night. Miss Boylan's story is illustrated with colored slides taken right in the vice districts of our great cities, and tells where the thousands of young girls disappear yearly go; the methods used to lure them from home and entrap them in a life of slavery. Miss Boylan comes highly recommended by the press and public. Her lecture should be heard by every man, woman, boy and girl in Santa Ana. This lecture is a special added attraction to the usual show of moving pictures. Prices are the same, 5 and 10 cents.

MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA

—All members of the Modern Woodmen of America are requested to meet on next Tuesday night to hear Neighbor Watson explain the new rate of insurance.

WILL STERILIZE ALL MONEY SENT OUT BY THE BANK

The California National Bank of this city to protect its employees and depositors have just installed a system of sterilization for all money given out across their counters. Bacteriological examinations have proven time and again that almost all moneys contain countless thousands of disease germs and that a great many diseases are directly caused and spread by the handling of money that has been in the possession of some person suffering from an infectious ailment.

This original move on the part of the California National Bank will be appreciated by a host of particular people who have a hesitancy and fear in handling moneys.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Bell

Good entertainment will be found at the Bell for the first three nights of the week. The vaudeville, Smith and Adams, in singing, talking and dancing specialty, are considered by managers of all big theaters, as "Head lines" on their best bills, and "Doc" has gone a little above the usual salary to secure them. With Smith and Adams, will be found one of those wonderful weekly films of Pathe Bros., presenting the great events of the week, from all quarters of the globe. Also "Bunker," a great army dramatic play, introducing the great Delig Trained Horse "Buz," also a great Vitaphone comedy, "Where the Money Went." The show is a good one, every number being a feature, at the Bell, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mac Watters Quartette Tonight

These popular entertainers will give a return concert at the First M. E. church tonight, and everybody will be delighted to hear the Mac Watters Quartette, that recently held evangelistic services at the First M. E. church and gave a very enjoyable concert two weeks ago.

The entertainment will be given this evening at 8 o'clock. This will enable those who failed to hear them before on account of very bad weather, or to hear these young men in popular concert. A silver collection will be taken at the door, and everybody is invited. The affair will be held at the First Methodist church.

—The Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company settled the policy of Mr. A. B. Henrickson today, through the agency, Mr. A. S. Blah of Orange, with a check for $5000. The policy was less than a year old.

Hear the MacWatters Quartette at the First M. E. Church tonight.

ARRESTED IN THE NEW AUTO

Tickled to Death no Name for the Elation Felt by the Swope Family

Claud Swope Tells How His Sister-in-Law Landed the E.-M.-F.

ANAHEIM, March 18.—Perhaps there wasn't a happier family in Orange county Saturday night than the Swope family, for after a month and a half's excitement over who was going to win the Register's splendid automobile, the relief was too great to be held in bounds. Although they felt sorry for the other contestants who lost, as they would have been if they had lost, their enthusiasm was so great that they started for home with the good news so fast that the speed laws were hopelessly fractured. A motor cop who could not be fazed by their enthusiasm arrested them for speeding before they had got out of town. Again in Anaheim they severely strained the law, and were asked for an explanation from the officer. He was told that they had won the auto, and were in a great hurry to bring the news home. Officer Germain did not have the heart to bring any gloom into the evening and so warned them to keep their enthusiasm confined to safer channels in the future.

This is what Mr. C. L. Swope, brother-in-law of Mrs. J. Leslie Swope, says of the contest, and gives a view of the kind of a fight they put up for it. "How did you win?" "What is the best way?" "How could you do it?" These are the after-contest questions of many friends and supporters and as this is our first and will be our last contest of the kind, we can only review the battle and relate how we believe we copied the capital prize in the great contest of the Santa Ana Daily Register. First, the greatest and most necessary asset is plenty of friends who are willing to back you not only with moral but financial support as well, and just let me say at this point that a dollar's worth of the latter goes about a million times as far as a million dollars worth of 'I hope you win' in bringing home the bacon.

"We are proud to say that Anaheim and surrounding country stood behind us faithfully and loyally as well as many friends throughout the state of California.

"Second. Grab the votes when vote values count most—don't wait for the finish to do your work. Of course, grab subscriptions at all times, early and late, but when they are big—gather them in—put your big effort into the best market and we can safely say that during the big triple offer we brought the E.-M.-F. home to Anaheim, for during those two weeks we polled something over 2,000,000 votes to carry us through the poverty value of votes that followed.

"Third. In a close hard race don't tip your hand. Let your competitors hurry, hurry yourself, but don't let them feel your fastest pace until the close of the marathon. During the contest Mrs. Swope confided in no one except active lieutenants and her big total at the end was a surprise to all, including members of the family, as well as others.

"And now in conclusion perhaps it is only necessary to say that in the contest that has just closed there was a field of the fairest, squarest, hardest rustling candidates to be found anywhere and to lose in such a race is an honor—and to win is largely luck in the break."

ORGANIZED TAFT CLUB AT ANAHEIM

ANAHEIM, March 18.—The meeting that was called Saturday night to organize a Taft club was quite successful, there being about fifty members enrolled. Temporary officers were elected as follows: Justice J. S. Howard, president; Mrs. Lemon, secretary. The committee meets this morning, composed of the temporary officers and local members of the central committee, to decide on the time and place for holding a public mass meeting. Capt. Fredericks of Los Angeles has assured the members that he will come down to speak before the mass meeting when it is held.

PIONEER OF ANAHEIM DEAD

Man Who Bought Land There in 1857 Passed Away Yesterday Morning

ANAHEIM, March 17.—Theodore E. Schmidt died this morning at 2 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Herman Dickel of North Lemon street, this city. Mr. Schmidt had been ill for several weeks, suffering with infirmities of old age. He was past 88 years. He was one of the only two remaining pioneers of Anaheim, having arrived here in 1852.

Mr. Schmidt was born in Bielefeld, Westphalia, Prussia, December 26, 1823, a son of Frederick William Schmidt, and a grandson of Professor Schmidt, for many years a well-known educator in the public schools, and at town of Bielefeld. Mr. Schmidt was educated in the public schools, and at a comparatively early age embarked in the dry goods business. This business experience was supplemented by extensive travel in the different parts of Europe, principally in France and Spain, after which he enlisted in the German army as a private in the Fifteenth Infantry of Fusiliers, and for meritorious service was advanced to the grade of lieutenant. After an honorable discharge he came to America in 1848, the craft in which he sailed landing in New Orleans after a tempestuous voyage. There he secured employment as a clerk in the gold exchange, but in the meantime made plans for a future life in the opportunity-laden West. December 14, 1848, he started out to cross Texas and Mexico. This trip was made on foot and when he reached Mazatlan boarded a French vessel, which anchored at San Francisco, the entire journey having consumed seven months.

Two years after he purchased land here in 1857, he located here and engaged in horticulture upon forty acres and continued with fair success until 1871. He was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and was also a member of the Turn Verein of San Francisco. In his effort to improve Anaheim and place it in touch with the older centers of culture and refinement he started the first musical society of the town. For many years he was president of the Anaheim Water Company, and for a longer time a director.

Three daughters living are Mrs. H. A. Dickel and Mrs. E. Turk of Anaheim, and Mrs. Frances (Dr. J. H.) Bullard of Los Angeles. At the request of the deceased the body will be cremated at the Evergreen Cemetery, Los Angeles, tomorrow. The funeral is to be conducted at Back's undertaking parlors, Anaheim, at 10:30 this morning.

GAME IS WON BY ANAHEIM

Score of 5 to 4 Yesterday in Favor of Mother Colony Against Santa Ana

ANAHEIM, March 18.—Anaheim won the ball game from Rummy DuBois's Santa Ana players by the score of 5 to 4. It was an exciting game all the way through, and kept the large number of fans excited most of the time. Not until the game was over was Anaheim sure of victory, for in their last time up with the score standing 5 to 2 against them and two outs, Brownie slammed a long drive out over second which landed at the feet of Anaheim's center fielder, Bowen. As Bowen was not a regular player and somewhat out of practice, this proved to be a hard one and he had to let it slip by. The ball rolled way into center and what should have been a two-base hit proved to be a home run, also bringing another runner in. This brought the score up to 5 to 4, but the next man up fanned and the game was over.

DuBois's team put up a very good game yesterday considering that this is the first game they have played this season. With more practice it should improve greatly. Next Sunday the Santa Ana team is to play Pomona at that place, and Anaheim is to play the Jose Villars of Los Angeles on these grounds. Kistler was credited with eleven strikeouts and DuBois with six. The line-up was:

DuBois	P	Kistler
Stevens	C	Gerken
Berger	1B	Hendricks
Water	2B	Huntington
Brown	SS	Fisher
Rumsey	3B	Miller
Vern	LF	Schultz
Thompson	CF	Bowen

PIONEER'S FUNERAL WAS HELD TODAY

ANAHEIM, March 18.—The funeral services of Theodore E. Schmidt, father-in-law of H. A. Dickel, were held this morning from the funeral parlors of Backs and Terry. Rev. F. W. Mitchell of the Presbyterian church conducted the services and the Presbyterian choir furnished the music. Many beautiful floral pieces of white carnations, lilacs of the valley and maidenhair fern from the family and large circle of friends were in evidence.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Tomatoes were weaker, few Mexican offerings selling for more than $2 a box. The decline was due to the poor quality of the stock in hand. Celery continued to be quoted at $5.75 per crate for the best. Lettuce was weak, due to liberal receipts and light shipments to northern points.

Rhubarb was quoted as high as $1.75 per box, with plenty of stock to be had at $1.25. Green peas were a trifle easier, but the best stock was held at 10 cents per pound. Eggplant continued to command top prices, owing to scarcity. The citrus fruit market was dull and inactive. There was only a moderate local demand for navel oranges and only fancy stock commanded anything like top figures. Lemons were a shade weaker. The top price on especially fancy stock was $3.50 per box, and handlers moved out their stock slowly at that figure. There was plenty of accumulated inferior stock sold at low figures.

Apples moved out slowly, but new crop prices were best in call at the outside figure of $1.75 for the four tier size.

Tropical fruits were firm at former rates with considerable activity shown in Central American pineapples and bananas.

The egg market was steady under the revised quotations of the previous day. There was a good demand for candied stock at the low quoted prices. Receipts were 600 cases. Butter was firm and unchanged. There was a good demand for creamery extra and ladle stock. The bulk of the sales was not large but in keeping with the arrivals. Receipts were 19,355 pounds.

The potato market was in good shape notwithstanding liberal receipts—6588 sacks. There was good retail trade in Oregon stock. Shipments were light.

The prevailing quotation of $3.50 a hundredweight for all varieties of yellow onions was firmly upheld. The demand at that figure was good. Receipts were 119 sacks.

Sweet potatoes were active at former rates. No receipts were reported in.

Bean arrivals were 1164 sacks. The market was firm generally.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

The great register of Orange county for the year 1912, as well as every other county in the state of California, is now being compiled. All voters who expect to participate in the general election, to be held on November 5, 1912, for the purpose of electing electors for president of the United States, and for certain state and county officers, must register on or before October 5. Registration closes for the presidential primary election April 13, for the state primary election August 3, and for the general state election on October 5. Sections for city offices in cities of the sixth class will be held April 8 and all voters who wish to vote at elections to be held in cities of the sixth class, in this county include Anaheim, Fullerton, Orange, Huntington Beach, Newport Beach and Stanton, and whose names do not now appear on the register for the years 1910-1911, must register on or before March 9. All voters in the above named cities containing more than one voting precinct and who have moved from one precinct to another in said cities, must re-register at once.

W. B. WILLIAMS, County Clerk.

LOCAL TEAM IN LEAD COUNTY MEET

Santa Ana Takes First Score, Anaheim Second With High Honors

YOUNGMAN TAKES THE SHORT DASHES

Newlands of Huntington Beach
Breaks the County High Jump Record

(By F. H. Mitchell)
"We win," was heard on all sides Saturday after the Santa Ana High boys had come out victorious in one of the largest track and field meets ever held in Orange county.

The final scores in order were as follows: Santa Ana, 50½; Anaheim, 37; Huntington Beach, 22½; Orange, 6; Fullerton, 5.

The dope that was laid out by Coach Culp of Anaheim, first part of the week was upset in several places, as were any other dope sheets that were made.

The first upset came in the first event of the day when Youngman of Santa Ana took the half century in the fast time of five and two-fifths seconds. Livernash of Huntington Beach was picked for the winner of this event, but was only able to land a third place, second place going to Douglas of Anaheim.

From this on the competition was hot between the Anaheim lads and the local boys. Anaheim took the lead for a brief spell, but it was indeed brief. They took the lead on the 440 which went to Baker of Anaheim after Smith had been forced to drop from sheer exhaustion. It was said that he finished he would not doubt have smashed the county record. Johnny Jacobs scored third place for the locals by a good sport less than fifty yards from the finish line, coming from last place to third place, thereby winning a generous round of applause from his schoolmates on the bleachers. The rooters' club did good work here.

"Tiny" Barker came up strong with the shot, taking the weight event by a put of 41 feet, 9 inches on his last trial. This put the chief rivals on even terms again.

In the next race the Santa Ana boys upset some more of Culp's dope.

The stick events had been given to Watson of Orange without any trouble, nobody counting on Bert West of the local team. Watson did not even place in this event, being unable to clear the sticks sufficiently, spilled and was out of it completely, second place going to Chamberlain of Anaheim.

There was some discussion over the century dash which was won by Youngman of Santa Ana. The starter had fired his gun and some of the boys had jumped and he tried to fire a second time to make them stop, but there was no cartridge in the gun and the race went on just the same, first going to the locals, second to Anaheim and third to Orange. It was decided to run the race over, and Youngman again won it, second place going to Lane of Orange and third place was grabbed by Newcomer of Santa Ana.

The mile and half-mile runs were won by Beebe of Anaheim, the tall lad winning after being given a hard fight by Adkinson of Santa Ana. In the half mile Beebe was hard pressed by West of the red and white for two-thirds of the distance, but the pace was too much for the local boy, and Beebe crossed the line an easy winner.

In the furling event King, a one-armed colored boy from Fullerton, and Youngman of Santa Ana, tied for first place, their time being 24 1-5 seconds in each heat. The two did not race each other, winners of heats being accepted as final.

The high jump record was broken by two men in the meet Saturday. The record was 5 feet, 6 inches. Lacy of Santa Ana cleared the bar at a slight raise over the record, but Newland of Huntington Beach went him one better, clearing the bar at 5 feet, 8½ inches, breaking the record and also winning first place in the event.

James Donahue of Olympic fame, gave an exhibition of low hurdles, covering a hundred and twenty yards easily and in pretty form. His time was sixteen seconds. Donahue also gave an exhibition broad jump.

The final race of the day was the half-mile relay. Santa Ana won this race as she had won several others, by having just a little more speed than the other fellow.

The runners on the locals' winning relay team were: Ec. Lacy, Newcomer, Smith and Youngman.

Next Saturday the boys will meet San Diego at Lincoln Park.

The summary:

50-yard dash—Youngman (S. A.) won, Douglas (A.) second, Livernash (H. B.) third. Time 5 2-5 seconds.
440-yard dash—Baker (A.) won, Linn (H. B.) second, Jacobs (S. A.) third. Time 56 1-5 seconds.

120-yard hurdles—West (S. A.)

won, Chamberlain (A.) second; no third finished. Time, 18 seconds.

100-yard dash—Youngman (S. A.) won, Lane (O.) second, Newcomer (S. A.) third. Time 10 2-5 seconds.

100-yard dash—Youngman (S. A.) won, Lane (O.) second, Newcomer (S. A.) third. Time 10 2-5 seconds.

220-yard dash—King (F.) won, Youngman (S. A.) tied for first, Lane (O.) second. Time 24 1-5 seconds.

Pole vault—Swanner (S. A.) Foutz (S. A.), Hibbard (H. B.), tied for first. Height, 9 feet, 6 inches.

220-yard hurdles—Kelly (A.) won, Foutz (S. A.) second, Watson (O.) third. Time 28 2-5 seconds.

Discus throw—Rannow (A.) won, Elliot (A.) second, Shipke (O.) third. Distance, 99 feet, 8 inches.

880-yard run—Beebe (A.) won, Adkinson (S. A.) second, Armitage (H. B.) third. Time, 2 minutes, 9 seconds.

High jump—Newland (H. B.) won, T. Lacy (S. A.) second, Smith (S. A.) third. Height, 5 feet, 8½ inches.

Broad jump—Newland (H. B.) won, Livernash (H. B.) second, King (F.) third. Distance, 20 feet, 7½ inches.

180-yard hurdle exhibition by James Donahue.

Half mile relay—Won by Santa Ana (Ec. Lacy, Newcomer, Smith and Youngman). Time, 1 minute, 39 seconds.

The high school band kept things stirring by lively music throughout the afternoon.

THREE CARRIERS IS THE RECOMMENDATION

Postoffice Inspectors Fix the Number Orange Will Have on the Start

ORANGE, March 18.—Orange is expected to have three letter carriers within six months. Word has been received here that postoffice inspectors have recommended that Orange be given three carriers, this city having grown to the free mail delivery class. It is expected that an order for civil service examination for carriers will be received soon, and probably within six months the carriers will have been appointed and begun work.

—Hermosa Chapter No. 105, O. E. S., will hold its regular meeting Monday evening, March 19, at which time Mrs. Eva H. Boyd, district deputy grand matron, will pay her official visit. A full attendance of the members and visiting members is desired.

IN THE JUSTICE'S COURT

FROM FELONY TO BATTERY

Well-Borer and Two Witnesses
Say That He Did Not Use
Any Weapon

W. M. McCormick, a well-borer, who is putting down a well on C. C. Chapman's ranch at Placentia, faces a misdemeanor charge instead of a felony charge. He was charged with attacking D. G. Sauls with a barrow-tooth or a piece of pipe. McCormick and two employees, J. E. Moston and A. W. Reid declared McCormick used nothing but his fists. Sauls said McCormick sent for him, and when Sauls stepped into the door he was struck a blinding blow. Dr. Bryan of Fullerton said the man had a triangular cut to the bone on the forehead, a three or four inch cut on the forehead to the cheek, a cut to the bone, and a long bruise on the side of the head. The doctor said he thought it impossible for the wounds to have been caused by a man's fists.

There were no eye-witnesses except McCormick's employees. They said McCormick struck first.

With their evidence, District Attorney West dismissed the charge of assault with a deadly weapon, and caused McCormick's arrest on a charge of battery. McCormick pleaded not guilty, and his trial was set for March 25.

Later in the day McCormick changed his plea to guilty of battery and paid a fine of $50.

To Take Appeal

BANK OFFICIALS TO TESTIFY IN STANDARD CASE

LOS ANGELES, March 18.—Several directors, in addition to Vice President J. T. Brady, will be subpoenaed to appear before the Federal grand jury to be interrogated regarding the alleged misappropriation by Earl Standard, of funds from their American National Bank at Pomona, when the jury meets tomorrow. Deputy Federal Marshal Irvin Dingle started for Pomona today to serve the subpoenas.

Attorney Loucks, attorney for Standard, stated that he was undecided whether or not to advise his client to make a statement to the grand jury unless commanded to do so.

Not being able to raise $20,000 bail, Standard is in the county jail.

Pomona Charge Dropped

POMONA, March 18.—The charges here against Earl Standard, the alleged embezzler, have been dropped. It is stated, upon request of the district attorney's office. This is taken to indicate that the prosecution, if any, and investigation of the alleged thefts will be conducted entirely by the federal authorities.

O. A. Olson, an oil driller, has turned over to the officials fifteen hundred dollars raised from cashing a check on the Farmers & Merchants' Bank of Pomona, with which Standard paid for drilling on oil properties. The money is being held.

Furniture of Merit

THE ARTICLE THAT HAS ACHIEVED SUCCESS THROUGH INTRINSIC MERIT, HAS MANY IMITATORS—MEN DO NOT COPY FAILURES—THESE IMITATORS NEVER TRY TO IMPROVE ON AN ARTICLE, THEIR SOLE AIM BEING TO CHEAPEN IT—MANY IMITATORS OF FURNITURE SUCCESSES.

After an article has won success through merit it is almost certain to have scores of imitators who make a similar article but cheapen it in every possible way, so that it can be sold at a lower price.

This is particularly true of articles of furniture. There is a certain make of nearly every article of home furnishings that stands out pre-eminently the superior of all other makes—goods that have won their way to nation-wide success, solely on merit—goods where the makers' only consideration has been quality, both in materials and workmanship. When such a line has reached a well earned success, then comes the imitator with his substitute made of inferior materials and cheaper in finish, yet in the main bearing a close resemblance to the genuine, which is offered with "lower prices" as their bait.

It has been the policy of this store from the beginning to select the lines that have been built upon intrinsic merit—goods made by reputable manufacturers whose names stand for first quality and whose responsible guarantee is back of every article they make.

For many of these standard lines we have the exclusive selling agency for Santa Ana, because we are known as the Quality Furniture Store of this locality.

Here are a few lines of National reputation for merit that are sold only by this store

Chas. P. Limbert's, High Class Arts and Crafts Furniture.
Hubbard Eldridge & Miller, Fumed Oak Living-room Furniture.
Jamestown Lounge Co., High Grade Lounges, Davenport, Easy Chairs, Etc.
Hawthorne Furniture Co., Living and Dining Room Furniture.
Macey Sectional Bookcases—Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets—New Method Gas Ranges—Wonder Washing Machines, Dreamland High Class Mattresses, Etc., Etc.
Although these are lines that have a national reputation for highest quality, you will find they are very moderately priced.

NO TRIAL IN CONDEMNATION

Settled Out of Court, S. P. vs.
Bridgeford Case is Dismissed

With a dismissal filed today, the suit of the Southern Pacific against O. B. Bridgeford to condemn a strip of land at the Santa Ana Co-operative Sugar Company switch on the Newport line is ended. The litigants and their attorneys have reached an agreement of purchase, and the matter has been settled out of court.

The case had been set down for trial by jury on Thursday of this week. The dismissal caused the clerk to notify the venire not to appear on that day.

Sent to Asylum
After a hearing in the superior court today, Mrs. M. J. Kirby, of Santa Ana, was ordered committed to the insane asylum at Patton.

Passed Examination
Orange County has a new public official in the person of Lester W. Slaback. Slaback was successful in passing the tests given by Attorney Williams, Head and West, a committee appointed by Judge West to give the tests, and on Saturday he was sworn in as official reporter of the superior court of this county.
